The Ins and Outs of Reimbursing School Board Members' Expenses

by Lexie Bergstrom, NDSBA Staff Attorney

School board members have a wide range of duties, including establishing a clear vision and goals for the district, setting school policies, developing an annual budget for the district, hiring and evaluating the superintendent, and serving as leaders and advocates of the community. Board members may receive compensation for the work they do within the district. It is each school board's responsibility to set the level of compensation for services payable to its members. In addition to their work within the district, school board member duties often involve work outside the district, including attending conferences, workshops, and other travel that may incur personal expenses. To ensure that these committed individuals can carry out their duties effectively, many school boards have established reimbursement policies.

The purpose of reimbursing school board members for expenses is multifaceted. Board members often find themselves attending conferences, seminars, and workshops to stay updated on educational trends, policies, and best practices. Travel expenses, registration fees, and accommodation costs associated with these events can add up. Additionally, board members may incur expenses related to local meetings, training sessions, or community events. Under North Dakota law, school board members may be reimbursed for all necessary meals, lodging, and travel expenses incurred while engaged in official business of the board. This means that a school board can choose not to reimburse its members for these expenses. If the board chooses to reimburse, reimbursement must happen at the same rate as provided for state officers and employees. The state fiscal and administrative policy provides as follows for reimbursement of meals:

- If meals are included as part of a registration fee for a conference, seminar, or other meeting, the employee should be reimbursed for the entire registration fee, if paid by the employee. However, the employee cannot claim reimbursement for the applicable meal allowance for that quarter.
- An employee should be reimbursed for meals paid for by the employee while attending a meeting at the request of, or on behalf of, the state or any of its subdivisions, agencies, bureaus, boards, or commissions, up to the allowable rates established below.
- NDCC 44-08-04 provides that reimbursement is allowed only for overnight travel and other travel while away from the normal place of employment for four hours or more. Employees will not be reimbursed for the first quarter if travel begins after 7:00 a.m.
- In order to claim expenses for the second and third quarters, the employee must have been in travel status one hour before the start of the quarter being claimed, and travel status must extend at least one hour into the quarter being claimed.

- The expense allowance for each of any 24-hour period effective August 1, 2023, is as follows:

Meal Allowance

1. First Quarter, 6 a.m. to 12 noon
 - a. In-State: $9.00
 - b. Out-of-State: 20% of GSA M&IE rate
2. Second Quarter, 12 noon to 6 p.m.
 - a. In-State: $14.00
 - b. Out-of-State: 30% of GSA M&IE rate
3. Third Quarter, 6 p.m. to 12 midnight
 - a. In-State: $22
 - b. Out-of-State: 50% of GSA M&IE rate
4. Fourth Quarter, 12 midnight to 6 a.m.

- As for luggage charges, state employees are reimbursed for their first piece of checked luggage. It is up to each agency to decide if employees should be reimbursed for additional checked luggage, overweight luggage and subsequent charges. So, each school board decides if they wanted to reimburse for those items.
- Taxi charges are reimbursed for state employees provided that receipts are provided for each taxi fare in excess of $10. For out of state travel, the U.S. General Services Administration Meals & Incidentals (M&IE) rate can be found on their website.

Transparency, accountability, and fiscal responsibility should be at the forefront of reimbursement policies to ensure that public funds are used efficiently and effectively. Prepayment for expenses incurred while traveling is generally not allowed, although the district may direct book and pay for travel and lodging expenses (which alleviates the need for an individual school board member to incur the expense). It is recommended board members provide receipts of the expenses occurred after their travel and be reimbursed once the board has had the chance to review the receipts and make calculations in accordance with North Dakota law. NDSBA has a template policy regarding compensation and expenses for board members (BBD) which addresses reimbursement. Please feel free to contact NDSBA for additional information regarding this topic.

HHS Encourages Schools to Apply for Student Behavioral Health Grants

News Release from the North Dakota Health and Human Services

The North Dakota Health and Human Services (HHS) Behavioral Health Division is encouraging eligible North Dakota public, private and tribal elementary and secondary schools to apply for the Behavioral Health School Grant program. Special education units and school districts that billed North Dakota Medicaid during the 2022-2023 school year are eligible to apply and use the funds to enhance their behavioral health services and supports for students. Schools can learn more at www.hhs.nd.gov/education/grant-funding.

The goal of this funding is to identify and address gaps along the behavioral health continuum of care. This includes identifying prevention and early intervention services that have no other funding source, using funds to reimburse clinical or treatment services that are effective, but not currently covered services and filling gaps in service coverage for populations that do not qualify for other forms of reimbursement.

Eligible schools can apply at: hhs.nd.gov/education/grant-funding.

Completed applications can be emailed to kastastny@nd.gov.

To determine if a district or special education unit is eligible to apply or to view more information about the school grant program, visit hhs.nd.gov/education/grant-funding. Deadline to apply is March 31, 2024. Funds must be expended by June 30, 2024.

Questions regarding this funding opportunity can be directed to Kayla Stastny, Behavioral Health and Education Administrator at kastastny@nd.gov.

Superintendent Evaluation Deadline March 15

North Dakota law requires that a school board complete the superintendent's summative evaluation process BEFORE MARCH 15. This means all paperwork, compilations, and public discussion of the evaluation must occur before March 15. A board cannot complete the process if they wait until the March meeting.

It is best to begin the process early in February to ensure compliance with the statutory deadline. The statute also requires that the superintendent be evaluated using a satisfactory or unsatisfactory rating in each area evaluated.

State Mileage Rate Changes

As of January 1, 2024, the state rate for mileage reimbursement is $0.67 per mile.

State mileage rates can be found on the North Dakota Office of Management and Budget website at www.nd.gov/omb/agency/financial/fiscal-policies under Fiscal Administrative Policy Updates Effective 1/1/2024.

Mileage rate updates can also be found on NDSBA's webpage under QuickClicks: Mileage Reimbursement Rate (link to www.gsa.gov website).
